CAMPING

Don't Say It

Players try to guess camping-related words or phrases without using the "taboo" words or phrases listed below. The team that correctly guesses the most words wins.

Materials Needed:

- Game cards (cut out)
- Timer

How To Play:

1. Cut out game cards and place them face down in a pile.
2. Divide players into two teams.
3. The first team chooses someone to be the first clue-giver. This person takes the top card, without revealing it to the other players.
4. Set a timer for 60 seconds. The clue-giver then tries to describe the word or phrase to their team without using any of the taboo words or phrases listed on the card. Hand gestures, rhyming words, or acting it out is prohibited.
5. If a team guesses the word or phrase correctly, they earn a point. If the clue-giver use any taboo words, they lose a point. Get as many correct guesses as you can in the 60 seconds.
6. After the set time limit, play passes to the other team, and a new clue-giver takes their turn.
7. Play continues until all cards have been used or until the designated number of rounds is completed.
8. The team with the most points at the end of the game wins.

HOW TO PLAY: Have participants form a circle, with one person (or several) holding a gift. Read this story and each time the word LEFT is read, gifts are passed to the person on their left. When the word RIGHT is read, gifts are passed to the RIGHT. Anyone who is holding a gift at the end of the story gets to keep it.

One bright and sunny morning, the RIGHT family decided it was the perfect day to go camping. They packed up their car, making sure there was nothing LEFT behind, packing their tents, their RIGHT-sized sleeping bags, and their trusty flashlights.

On the way to the campsite, Mr. RIGHT realized he had LEFT the map at home. "No problem," said Mrs. RIGHT. "I remember the way, just keep going straight until we see the big oak tree, then turn LEFT."

As they drove, little Timmy RIGHT spotted a sign on the RIGHT side of the road that said, "Scenic Route - Turn RIGHT." "Can we take the scenic route?" he begged. "All RIGHT," said Mr. RIGHT, "but only if we don't get LEFT behind schedule."

The scenic route was beautiful. They saw deer on the LEFT side of the road and rabbits hopping on the RIGHT. Suddenly, the car made a strange noise and veered to the RIGHT. "Oh no, I think we have a flat tire," said Mrs. RIGHT.

Mr. RIGHT got out of the car and checked. Sure enough, the RIGHT front tyre was flat. "Good thing we have a spare," said Mr. RIGHT. He started to change the tyre but realized he LEFT the jack at home. "This isn't RIGHT," he said. "We need help."

Just then, a ranger came by and asked if they needed assistance. "You're in luck," he said. "I have a jack RIGHT here." With the ranger's help, they got it fixed and were back on their way.

When they finally arrived at the campsite, they were delighted to see that their favourite spot was open, RIGHT to the LEFT of a running stream. They set up their tents to the LEFT of the picnic table and started a campfire on the RIGHT.

That night, as they sat around the fire roasting marshmallows, Mr. RIGHT told ghost stories. "And then, from the LEFT side of the tent, they heard a rustling noise," he said in a spooky voice.

Just then, they heard a real rustling noise coming from the RIGHT. Everyone screamed and turned to see a friendly raccoon looking for LEFTovers.
